

Job Description – Environmental Construction Manager / Site Supervisor

SEMS, Inc, a multidiscipline Environmental Engineering and Consulting Firm, is seeking an Environmental Construction Manager / Site Supervisor based in Baton Rouge or Mandeville, Louisiana.

Responsibilities:

- Oversight of field work, planning and resource management on commercial and government assessment and remediation projects
- Ability to operate heavy equipment including but not limited to earth work and/or aerial equipment (preferred)
- Ability to read and follow project specifications
- Assist Project Managers with project coordination and schedule implementation
- Oversight of subcontractors for remediation or demolition projects
- Performing operations and maintenance of remediation systems
- Identifying and assisting with compliance/regulatory requirements

Skills & Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Construction Management or 5 years' experience in managing field activities
- Relevant experience in the environmental remediation or compliance field (preferred)
- Leadership and management skills demonstrating integrity and professionalism
- Proven well developed teamwork and collaboration skills including strong verbal and written communication
- Ability to work safely and effectively
- Attention to detail and quality control/quality assurance programs
- Ability to utilize modern technologies
- Able to pass a physical including a drug screen
- Able to travel and work a flexible schedule, potentially including after hours and weekends
- Ability to pass background check
- Valid United States Driver's License
- Commercial Driver's License - CDL (preferred)
- 40-hour HAZWOPER Certified (preferred)
- Basic Safety Plus 8 hours Certified (preferred)