

Job Description – Remediation Specialist

SEMS, Inc, an Environmental Engineering and Consulting Firm, is seeking a Remediation Specialist to work out of our Baton Rouge or Mandeville location. The ideal candidate will have an interest in environmental compliance field with an emphasis on site assessment and remediation.

Responsibilities:

- Assist project manager in commercial and government assessment and remediation projects including field work, oversight, and resource management
- Assist in the design, implementation and management of various soil and groundwater investigations and remedial projects
- Assists with the preparation of environmental assessment reports (Phase I & IIs) and other reporting for remedial actions
- Record data, prepare reports, and provide analysis
- Provide compliance, permitting, and technical support in various industries
- Communicate with regulators on compliance issues and permitting
- Participate in site visits, sampling, and investigations

Skills & Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in engineering, geology, or other environmental science
- Attention to detail and quality control/quality assurance programs
- Able to travel and work a flexible schedule, potentially including after hours and weekends
- Proficiency in technical writing and communication
- Work as part of a team
- Knowledgeable in the use of Microsoft Office software
- Valid United States Driver's License
- Ability to pass background check
- 40-hour HAZWOPER Certified (preferred)
- Basic Safety Plus 8 hours Certified (preferred)
- Able to pass a physical including respirator fit testing and pulmonary function test