

Job Description – Foreman / Heavy Equipment Operator

SEMS, Inc is an Environmental Management Firm with a multi-disciple approach to offer our clients environmental engineering, environmental construction, demolition, and remediation services. SEMS provides turnkey solutions to complex problems.

We are seeking a Foreman/Heavy Equipment Operator to work out of our Baton Rouge or Mandeville location. The Foreman will be responsible for implementation of daily field activities and project coordination with the client

Essential Job Functions:

- Intermediate to advanced experience on a excavator, bull dozer, skid steer and mini excavator
- Perform daily maintenance and safety checks of equipment
- Ability to read blueprints
- Ability to safely run projects from the field and provide clear communication with clients
- Layout by interpreting construction plans
- Multi-task and set priorities effectively
- Basic computer skills including daily applications and Microsoft
- Willingness to travel to our job sites
- Must possess a valid driver's license
- Must meet physical requirements necessary to perform job responsibilities

Preferred Job Functions:

- 40 Hour Hazwoper training
- TWIC Card
- Experience in environmental remediation projects
- Torch cutting and/or welding
- 10+ years of experience in environmental management or equipment operation

Benefits:

- $50,000 - $100,000 salary based on experience and skill level
- Per diem for travel
- 401K
- Health, Dental, and Vision insurance
- PTO